

THREE MEN ARE HELD AS "AD" SWINDLERS ON WORLD EVIDENCE

Advised for a Partner and Disappeared After Getting the Money.

Walter Hartman of No. 350 East Eighty-eighth Street and John Martin, alias Bradley, alias Anderson, of No. 475 Manhattan Avenue, were held in $2,000 bail each for the Grand Jury by Magistrate McGuire in Yorkville Court yesterday on a charge of grand larceny. The complainant was Fred W. Kline of Caldwell, N. J. The evidence in the case was collected by Detective Lieut. McConville and an investigator for the Legal Department of the World.

Hartman, whose advertisements were excluded from The World after investigation several weeks ago, advertised in other newspapers for a partner with $500. Kline answered his advertisement and called at his office, No. 35 West Thirty-third Street.
Hartman claimed to be in the jobbing business.

While he was talking with Kline, entered a man who was introduced as Martin with a proposition to buy a lot of jewelry for $300 for which, he said, there was a prospective customer willing to pay $350. Kline contributed $100 toward the purchase price.

The following day he put up $200 more with another man, not yet arrested, on the advice of Hartman, to help pay for some pawntickets.
Hartman put up $100 with Kline's $200, the recipient agreeing to buy the pawntickets back at the end of the week for $375.

Twenty-four hours later Kline came around to the office and found everything moved out. Neither Hartman nor his associates in business had left any address behind them. Later Kline found Martin at his old business in new quarters at No. 1431 Broadway under the name of Anderson.

Another alleged swindler, Ferdinand Feuerlicht, formerly manager of a branch office of the Singer Sewing Machine Company of No. 1227 First Avenue, was also held yesterday for the Grand Jury by Magistrate McGuire in the Yorkville Court on a charge of grand larceny. His prosecution is also the result of an investigation made by The World, co-operating with Detective Lieut. McConville.
Feuerlicht advertised in The World and other newspapers for a collector with $100 cash security. Three men, each of whom claimed they answered his advertisement and gave him $100, appeared in court against him yesterday. They testified that he closed up his store and disappeared after they had tried in vain to get their money back.

Walk-Out of 25 Employees at Fairmont, W. Va., Under Inquiry.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The twenty-five employees at the Fairmont, W.
Va., Post Office, who went on a strike yesterday because the Civil Service Commission removed the Assistant Postmaster, are liable to criminal prosecution by the Department of Justice.

At a conference to-day between Assistant Attorney General Wallace and Stuart W. Walker, United States Attorney for the Northern District of West Virginia, Mr. Walker was instructed to collect all the facts in the case and report without delay to the department.

It can be shown that the postal employees walked out of the office with intent to delay or retard the mails they can be prosecuted under the Criminal Code.

The penalty for such conspiracy is a fine of $100 or imprisonment for six months, or both. The Department of Justice wishes to dispose of this case at once in order that similar attempts in the future may be dealt with under the law.

The Post Office Department detailed several inspectors to Fairmont to-day to make a report upon the walk-out of the employees.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made
Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss Amelia Jaquillard, 3901 Tchou-pitoulas St., New Orleans, La.

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me.
I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." —Miss Estelle Maguire, 110 Thwing St., St. Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medford, Mass. Co.
(confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.—Adv't.
